Canaan. A.D. 1824.

A journal or Memorandum.

for the family of Believers

Which was first gathered, and placed under the care, and protection of Dan Higley, and Eunice Mc Carter, in New Lebanon, on the farm called the Patterson farm, a little below the North Family, in Shaker Village.

The gathering of this family took place in December, A.D. 1813, consisting at that time of about eleven in number. But a journal was not undertaken till A.D. 1824: therefore what is noted previous to this time is partly from memory, and partly from minutes found in other writings.

Explanation of the following order of the book.

Years are separated by double lines drawn across the page, (intersected by the year which follows)
Months — — by singles lines,
Days, by half lines,
And the day of the month set in the left hand column.

A.D. 1814 — November. —

Moved to a house, called the mill-house, near a Gristmill about half a mile west of the Village before mentioned, with about the same number as then first gathered. —

1815 — February

20 Anna Davis succeeds to Eunice McCarter

July

29 Jeremiah Talcott succeeds to Dan Higley ———

From this time forward to September 1820 the family went through such changes as are common to Believers. — But nothing has been recollected sufficiently distinct and clear to be dated and recorded —

1820 - September

About this time preparation began to be made to move into Canaan, onto the farm called the Peabody farm, nearly three miles in Southern direction from their present residence. Accordingly the repairing of the house was undertaken in this month, and finished the winter following.
